EXECUTIVE ORDER

01.01.2021.03

Maryland Semiquincentennial Commission

- WHEREAS, The 250th anniversary of the founding of the United States of America will occur on July 4, 2026;
- WHEREAS, The United States Congress established the U.S. Semiquincentennial Commission to coordinate the commemoration and observance of the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, Revolutionary War, founding of the United States, and related events;
- WHEREAS, Maryland played host to the “Annapolis Tea Party” in October 1774, when the cargo ship Peggy Stewart was burned to the waterline after a tax dispute involving the Tea Act;
- WHEREAS, Marylanders began to call for American independence in 1775 with the issuance of the Bush Declaration — considered the first “declaration of independence” in the colonies — and the Annapolis Convention declaration that the Association of Freemen of Maryland must prepare for the colony’s defense;
- WHEREAS, Four prominent Marylanders signed the Declaration of Independence: Samuel Chase, William Paca, Thomas Stone, and Charles Carroll, the only Roman Catholic among the 56 members of the Second Continental Congress;
- WHEREAS, Maryland made significant contributions to the Revolutionary War by supplying material, resources, ships, and soldiers;

- WHEREAS, The courage and sacrifice of the First Maryland Regiment, known as the Maryland Old Line and Maryland 400, at the Battle of Brooklyn in 1776 helped save the Continental Army;
- WHEREAS, Baltimore served as a temporary capital for the colonies during the Continental Congress in 1776 and 1777;
- WHEREAS, The Maryland State House, the oldest state capitol in continuous legislative use, hosted the Continental Congress in 1783 and 1784, and is where George Washington came before Congress to resign his commission as commander-in-chief of the Continental Army;
- WHEREAS, The Maryland State House was the site of the ratification of the Treaty of Paris on January 14, 1784, which formally ended the Revolutionary War;
- WHEREAS, In September 1786, Maryland played host to the Annapolis Convention, where delegates discussed amendments to the Articles of Confederation and resolved to organize a Constitutional Convention; and
- WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the State to recognize Maryland's unique role in the American Revolution by undertaking commemorative activities that honor all Marylanders, and enhance our collective understanding of the past, present, and future;
